

John Kent

- Adjunct Assoc Professor of Agricultural and Wine Sciences and EH Graham Centre for Agricultural Innovation, Charles Sturt University
- Retired Head of the School of Agricultural and Wine Sciences, Charles Sturt University (2006-2011)
- 30 years professional expertise in pesticide management and application
- 30 years experience in developing, delivering and managing agricultural industry training schemes including ChemCert Australia, and Agsafe
- Author of numerous training manuals and resources
- Has delivered hundreds of Train the Trainer and industry training workshops
- Recent relevant projects:
- Kent JH (2011) Review of Accreditation of Agricultural Processes Australian Institute of Science and Technology
- Weston P and Kent JH (2011) Grain Storage and Biosecurity Training Project Cooperative Research Centre for National Plant Biosecurity Project CRC60125
- Kent J (2012) A Strategic Review of Training of Pesticide Users in Australia. National Working Party on Pesticide Applications
- Kent J and Do Van Hoe (2013) A Framework for Pesticide Management Training in Vietnam United Nations Food and Agriculture Organisation
- Kent J (2013) On-line Graduate Diploma Training module: Management of Empty Pesticide Containers University of Cape Town and United Nations Food and Agriculture Organisation
- Kent J (2016) A Strategy for Grains Industry Investment in Tertiary Education Grains Research and Development Corporation

